

Helping people find and keep employment

in Northeast Polk County

Through our Jobs for Life class, people learn about God's gift of work, experience life in Christ, receive supportive mentorship, and find and keep employment. Join us and help create sustainable change in our community!

Proven Curriculum & Resources

The JfL curriculum, used by hundreds of churches, non-profits, and Christ-centered ministries around the world, incorporates Biblical truths and stories to help people discover their God-given identity and gifts, develop character, and foster a supportive community that will equip them for work and life.

Jobs for Life helps people...

- understand the dignity of work
- discover God's plan for their life
- complete a vocational plan
- network with local employers
- prepare for job interviews
- create a professional resume
- gain a community of love and support

"Jobs for Life helped me believe for the first time in my life that God has a plan for me. The class helped me not only find employment, but also helped me understand the value of loving my work and seeing God in my experiences every day."

- Porscha, Jobs for Life Graduate

Here's how you can help:

Real transformation through Jobs for Life cannot happen without a group of people—a community— joining together to help men and women experience the dignity of work. Below are several ways you can get involved with our Jobs for Life class:

Join Our Leadership Team

By serving on our leadership team, you can help us work together to prepare people for employment in our community.

Be a Champion

Mentor a student in the class by encouraging them, helping them with coursework, and being a friend through their work-readiness journey.

Be a Business Partner

Get involved with our class by being on a business panel, and/or commit to interviewing and hiring Jobs for Life graduates.

Support our class

Support this ministry by praying for the individuals involved in our class, by volunteering your time, or by giving financially.
