PARTICIPANT COMMENTS & STORIES

Imagine hearing God whisper, "Slow down," when all you've ever know was rushing to survive. Prior to The WAY Home, I didn't fully understand what slowing down meant. Due to being in survival mode, I unconsciously equated rest to failure and stillness to stagnation. But I finally decided to stop leaning on my own understanding and God granted me the opportunity to create a foundation rooted in Christ.

Six months prior to entering The WAY Home, I had relocated to FL after being homeless as a result of leaving a 2-year domestic violence relationship (which encompassed spiritual, mental, and emotional abuse). I have also endured a multitude of storms including childhood trauma, poverty, betrayals and countless restarts.

Since arriving at The WAY Home, I've been able to slow down and listen by intentionally fasting from distraction. Through The WAY Home, God gave me the space and support to integrate my healing, redefine my faith, and prepare for the next mission. It is more than a shelter. It's been a sacred classroom where God rebuilds faith, restores confidence, and surrounds me with people who walk in love. I thank God for everyone at The WAY Center and WAY Home for pouring into us daily. (Client T)
